

About Friends of Henrico County Public Library

Friends of the Library are members of the community with an interest in both supporting the many services currently offered by the library and providing additional programs and services.

As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, the Friends strive to enhance and promote the use and enjoyment of the library, as well as sponsor special programs and activities. The Friends also develop supplemental funding for the library and actively support its policies and procedures.

Membership is open to individuals, families, and organizations who want involvement in the library. The opportunities are as varied as the materials and services offered by the library itself. Your modest annual contribution helps provide financial support to the Friends.

Support from Friends of the Library makes possible the annual All Henrico Reads event. Above, David Baldacci in 2011; on cover, Adriana Trigiani in 2013.

Services/Community Support

The Friends of the Library sponsor programs and resources including:

- Co-sponsor of the annual All Henrico Reads program
- Summer Reading Club programs for adults, teens and children
- Appearances by authors, experts, and musicians
- Local branch collection improvements, such as family resource centers
- Professional enrichment of staff
- Branch facility enhancements benefiting all visitors
- Children, teen and family programs
- Adult and senior citizen programs
- Movies
- Craft programs
- Holiday programs

The Friends raise funds by collecting membership dues, along with sales of books, earbuds and USB flash drives. These provide a significant portion of the budget that makes Friends programs and other accomplishments possible.
