

Seminars & Workshops for College Students

Building Life Skills & Financial Confidence

Virginia Credit Union is pleased to offer a variety of educational opportunities to help college students grow more confident about financial matters. Seminars and workshops can be tailored to meet the needs of various groups and presented at your location.

Topics include the following and others are also available:

Financial Independence

learn to make smart choices to succeed financially

Money's Not Free

how credit and loans work

Why Am I Broke

the psychology of spending

Moneywise

understanding concepts of money and financial institutions

Student Loans

understanding different types of loans and repayment options

Your Credit Score

building and maintaining a great credit score

Presentations are available for in-class guest speakers, student clubs and organizations, and independent programs open to all students. Handouts and assignments for course credit or extra credit are available upon request.

We invite you to take advantage of these learning opportunities. I welcome the chance to talk with you about how we can meet the needs of your student organization or classroom.

"Anyone can be financially successful. Regardless of income, the choices you make will determine your success. Educating yourself to make good choices is the first step." – Tom Katovsich
