

ORGANIZATION PROFILE

Virginia Credit Union is a member-owned financial cooperative headquartered in Richmond, Virginia. It offers a variety of affordable banking services including loans, credit cards, mortgages, savings and checking accounts. Realty and insurance services are provided by companies affiliated with Virginia Credit Union.

As a cooperative, Virginia Credit Union operates solely for the benefit of its members, not outside stockholders. Earnings are returned to members through helpful services, attractive rates, lower fees, and free financial education programs and resources.

Members receive personal attention through a full-service call center, branches, and online services. Online and mobile banking, network ATMs worldwide, and thousands of shared credit union branches provide convenient access.

Founded in 1928, Virginia Credit Union serves a broad and diverse field of membership that makes it easy to join. The membership includes employees and retirees of Virginia state and local governments and public schools, students at state-supported colleges and universities, as well as employees and members of hundreds of other companies and groups.

In addition, individuals who live, work or attend school in the Cities of Richmond, Petersburg, Hopewell and Fredericksburg, and in Buckingham, Cumberland, Nottoway and Prince Edward Counties are also among the many who can join and benefit.

Virginia Credit Union is federally insured by the National Credit Union Administration, a U.S. government agency. Virginia Credit Union is an equal housing opportunity lender.
