- 1. DEFAULT AND LIEN ON SHARES. We may elect to declare all amounts owed to us as immediately due and payable without notice or demand of any kind to you if (i) the Card is cancelled or surrender is demanded by us; (ii) you default in any payment due; (iii) you are declared deceased, bankrupt or insolvent; (iv) any attachment or garnishment proceedings are initiated against you or your property; (v) you violate any part of this Agreement or any other written Agreement you have with us; (vi) you make any false or misleading statements in any credit application or update of credit information; or (vii) anything else happens which we believe may substantially reduce your ability to repay what you owe. IF YOU HAVE OTHER LOANS FROM US OR TAKE OUT OTHER LOANS WITH US IN THE FUTURE, COLLATERAL SECURING THOSE LOANS WILL ALSO SECURE YOUR OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. In addition to other remedies, subject to limitations of applicable federal and state law you grant the Virginia Credit Union, Inc. a security interest in (Virginia Code § 6.2-1359) in all monies and accounts including share, share draft and share certificate accounts and other amounts held by the Virginia Credit Union, Inc., whether held in special, general or held in safe keeping and to which you have an ownership interest. Every such security interest may be exercised without demand upon or notice to you. If you have an unpaid credit card balance, you agree we may use funds in your Account(s) to pay any and all of the unpaid balance unless otherwise prohibited by Federal and/or state law. No such security interest shall be deemed to have been waived by any act or conduct on our part, or any failure to enforce such security interest, or by any delay in doing so. Every security interest shall continue in full force and effect until such security interest is specifically waived or released by an instrument in writing executed by us. UNLESS you expressly agree otherwise Household Goods (as defined in applicable law) and your dwelling will not secure your obligations under this Agreement even if the Virginia Credit Union, Inc. has or later acquires a security interest in household goods or a mortgage on the dwelling. You agree to pay all costs incurred by us in collecting your indebtedness or in enforcing this Agreement, including Attorneys' fees of 33 1/3% of the unpaid balance or such greater amount as may be reasonable and just and also those costs, expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in appellate, bankruptcy and post-judgment proceedings except to the extent such costs, fees or expenses are prohibited by law. You agree that we may apply any amounts in your accounts to satisfy your debts in the event we obtain judgment against you. You agree to pay attorney fees and collection cost whether or not an attorney files suit.
- 2. CONSENT & AGREEMENT. You consent and agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any activation or use of the Card indicates your consent and acceptance of the terms and conditions contained herein, and you agree to pay all amounts owed when due. You do not have to accept the Card or pay any fee unless you activate or use the Card. We can amend this Agreement at any time and without notice to you unless required by law. When required by law we will provide written notice to you within the time period allowed by law. Any Card access by you on or after the effective date of the change constitutes your acceptance of the changed term.
- 3. ENGLISH LANGUAGE. We will use and you agree to use, English language for all communication and correspondence, be it verbal, written, electronic or otherwise. We may accept your communication or correspondence in another language, but we are not obligated to do so.
- 4. FINANCE CHARGE CALCULATION METHOD - Average Daily Balance (including new purchases). (a) For Cash Advances and Balance Transfers: Finance Charge will be imposed from the date made or from the first day of the billing cycle in which the Cash Advance or Balance Transfer posted to your Card, whichever is later, and will continue to accrue until paid. If the New Balance shown on your periodic billing statement for the prior billing cycle is paid in full within 25 days from the closing date of that statement, no Finance Charge will be imposed during the current billing cycle for a Cash Advance or Balance Transfer posted to your Card during previous billing cycles. The Finance Charge for a billing cycle is computed by applying the monthly Periodic Rate (APR divided by 12) to the average daily balance of Cash Advances. (b) For Purchases: A Finance Charge will be imposed on Purchases only if you elect not to pay the entire New Balance shown on your periodic billing statement for the previous billing cycle within 25 days from the closing date of that statement. If you elect not to pay the entire New Balance shown on your previous periodic billing statement within that 25 day period, a Finance Charge will be imposed on the unpaid average daily balance of such Purchases from the previous billing statement closing date and on new Purchases from the date of posting to your Card during the current billing cycle, and will continue to accrue until the closing date of the billing cycle preceding the date on which the entire New Balance is paid in full or until the date of payment if more than 25 days from the closing date. The Finance Charge for a billing cycle is computed by applying the monthly Periodic Rate (APR divided by 12) to the average daily balance of Purchases.
- 5. BALANCE COMPUTATION METHOD. We figure the finance charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "average daily balance" of your account (including current transactions). To get the "average daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new Transactions and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Then, we add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the "average daily balance."
- 6. VARIABLE RATE INFORMATION. The APR is a variable rate based on the U.S. Prime Rate plus the applicable Margin. The Prime Rate is the highest rate published in the Wall Street Journal as of the first day of the calendar months of March, June, September and December and becomes effective on the first day of your billing cycle that begins in the same month in which the index was published. If the U.S. Prime Rate increases, your rate will increase. If the U.S. Prime Rate is not published or becomes unavailable, we may substitute a rate that we believe, in our sole discretion, to be similar to the U.S. Prime Rate.

The Margin is a specific number of percentage points which is added to the U.S. Prime Rate to calculate the Annual Percentage Rate. Your Margin will be determined by our review of your credit report. The Margin is the same for purchases, cash advances, and balance transfers unless any promotional offer states otherwise. The current Margin ranges:
 - Essential Mastercard® Margin Range: 5.74% to 16.74%
 - Cash Rewards Mastercard® Margin Range: 7.74% to 18.74%
 - Flex Rewards World Mastercard® Margin Range: 9.74% to 20.74%
- 7. APR/MARGIN SUBJECT TO CHANGE. Once your account has been opened for one year, every six months we obtain and evaluate your consumer credit information. Based on the results of our review your variable rate margin can decrease or increase which will result in a decrease or increase in your APR. Any fixed-rate promotional APR may increase and is permanently forfeited at the time any payment is 90-days past due.
- 8. MINIMUM PAYMENT AMOUNT. The required minimum periodic payment is the greater of: (1) $25 or 2.50% of that portion of the New Balance that does not exceed your credit limit, plus the entire portion of the New Balance in excess of your credit limit, plus any amount past due, whichever is greater; or (2) the total New Balance as shown on your periodic billing statement if the balance is under $25. Unless specified otherwise, payments must be mailed to the address indicated on your periodic billing statement.
- 9. PERMITTED & ILLEGAL USE OF CARD. You may use the Card: a) upon your verbal, transmitted or written request when presented in a manner or form acceptable by any merchant or financial institution that is a member, alone or in association with others, of Mastercard, b) if offered by us, upon execution of a written separate agreement for a Mastercard overdraft financing agreement; and c) at selected network ATMs in which we participate. You warrant and agree that your Card will not be used to make or facilitate any illegal transactions and will only be used for consumer purposes as determined by applicable law; and that such use, including any authorized use, constitutes an event of default under this Agreement and we may, at our option terminate your card privileges. Upon termination you will continue to owe all outstanding balances until repaid in full. You agree that we will not have any liability, responsibility or culpability whatsoever for any such use by you or any authorized user. You further agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any suits, liability, damages or adverse action of any kind that results directly or indirectly from such illegal use.
- 10. REVOKE OR REFUSE TO HONOR CARD. The Card is our property, it is not transferable and you must surrender it to us or our designee upon demand. As

We may cancel an inactive Card. We can deny any Transaction or request for authorization of a Transaction at any time with or without cause or notice to you. We may not post payments to your account or reflect them in your available credit limit until the date your payment is actually collected by us.
- 14. BILLING STATEMENT. You will receive a periodic billing statement at intervals determined by us that reflects all Card transactions for the prior monthly period. We will assume this statement is correct and accepted by you unless you write to us and tell us otherwise within 60 days from the date we mailed you the statement.
- 15. GOVERNING LAW & VENUE. Except to the extent that Federal law is applicable including but not limited to the rights of a "covered person" under the Military Lending Act, the validity, construction and enforcement of this Agreement and all matters arising out of the issuance and use of the Card will be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without regard to conflict-of-law principles, or where you live or use the Card. - 21. FOREIGN TRANSACTIONS. You may use your Card for retail purchases with foreign merchants and for cash withdrawals from foreign ATMs that bear the Mastercard®, Maestro®, NYCE® or Cirrus® logo and these foreign transactions will be converted into U.S. dollars. Some merchant and ATM transactions, even if you and/or the merchant or ATM are located in the United States, are considered foreign transactions under the applicable network rules. VACU does not control how these merchants, ATMs and transactions are classified for this purpose. The exchange rate in effect when the transaction is processed may differ from the rate in effect on the date of the transaction or the date of the posting of the transaction to your account. If you effect a transaction with your Mastercard in a currency other than U.S. dollars, Mastercard uses a government mandated rate if required to do so, or a wholesale market rate. VACU does not apply any additional conversion fee other than what the network imposes. If you need to contact us about your card while outside of the United States, call Mastercard collect at 1-636-722-7111.
- 22. PAYMENT POSTING. If different APRs apply to your account balance, then we will apply your total Minimum Payment Amount to the balance with the lowest APR. Any excess payment amount is applied to the balance with the highest APR. We can reject payments not denominated in U.S. dollars or not drawn on a U.S. financial institution. From time to time, we may allow you to skip a monthly payment. If we do, we will notify you. If you choose to skip a payment, finance charges will continue to accrue.

Tampa, FL 33631-3112

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these is necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Customer Service
P.O. Box 31112
Tampa, FL 33631-3112

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.
